

* Arya Sudarsanan

* Prosthodontics & Crown And Bridge

1. Gnathodynamometer is used to record
 - a. Biting force
 - b. Centric relation
 - c. Vertical dimension
 - d. Camper's plane
2. During post dam recording, the patient head should be tilted downwards by
 - a. 10°
 - b. 20°
 - c. 30°
 - d. 40°
3. Which gauge is used to record the measurements between borders of maxillary and mandibular dentures?
 - a. Will's gauge
 - b. Boley's gauge
 - c. Leaf gauge
 - d. Strain gauge
4. Masseter is a powerful muscle because it has:
 - a. Multiple tendinous septa
 - b. Unique bone attachment
 - c. Bipennate arrangement of fibres
 - d. Multipennate arrangement of fibres
5. Which muscle plays an important role in establishing neutral zone?
 - a. Masseter
 - b. Buccinator
 - c. Temporalis
 - d. Levator labii superioris
6. Patient is wearing a new denture for last 3 months. Patient complaints of burning sensation on the palatal mucosa. Denture should be relieved at:
 - a. Frenum
 - b. Labial flange
 - c. Post dam area
 - d. Incisive foramen
7. Lingual extension of mandibular impression be tested by
 - a. Functional movements of facial muscles
 - b. Functional movements of tongue
 - c. Vigorous extreme movements of tongue
 - d. Lateral and protrusive movement of mandible
8. According to Atwood classification of residual ridges, which is the least favourable ridge?
 - a. High well rounded
 - b. Knife edge
 - c. Low well rounded
 - d. Depressed
9. In the treatment of abused tissues in a patient with existing dentures, the first step is to
 - a. Reline the dentures
 - b. Educate the patient
 - c. New denture fabrication
 - d. Excise the abused tissues
10. Semi anatomic teeth have cuspal angulation of
 - a. 30°
 - b. 25°
 - c. 20°
 - d. 15°

Answers
1. a, 2. c, 3. b, 4. d, 5. b, 6. d, 7. b, 8. b, 9. b, 10. c